"In God we trust, all others we audit"

AN UNUSUALLY THOROUGH APPROACH

At Kreston Dormers we are not satisfied with a cursory tick-the-boxes approach to audit and assurance, and neither should you be.

We start by understanding the overall environment in which your organisation operates. We look at your existing internal control structure, the historical accuracy of your financial reporting and your present financial condition. (A good audit is like a good paint job — a lot of the work is in the preparation.)

Our methodology acknowledges real-world time and cost constraints by identifying and emphasising your areas of greatest financial reporting risk

CLOSE AND PRODUCTIVE CLIENT CONTACT

Your ongoing involvement in the process promotes better audit and assurance outcomes.

Key features of our approach include:

- Close coordination and control by our client service team
- A detailed understanding of your organisation
- Frequent communication with your management group
- Computer-assisted audit techniques
- IPO page base content
- Strong partner involvement

The usual result is a set of meaningful, practical recommendations that you can act on right away.
